Subject: Action required: Petition "Remove Hamas from the proscribed list of terrorist organisations"

Dear Peter Ninian Gregson,

You're not done yet!

Forward the email below to your potential supporters.

5 people need to click the link and confirm their support for us to check your petition.

Once you've gained the required number of supporters, we'll check your petition to make sure it meets the petition standards. If it does, we'll publish it. This usually takes a week or less.

Once your petition has 21 signatures it won't be able to add more until it's been checked by the petitions team. So, please wait until it's been checked and published before sharing it more widely.

Thanks,

My petition:

Remove Hamas from the proscribed list of terrorist organisations

Hamas actions are lawful, by the 1982 UN resolution 37/43, which "reaffirms the legitimacy of the struggle of peoples for independence, territorial integrity, national unity and liberation from colonial and foreign domination and foreign occupation by all available means, including armed struggle."

Hamas' right to resist the occupation of Palestine dates from the 1947 Nakba- when 750,000 were expelled from their homes after Britain abandoned them to well-armed Zionist militias; thousands more have been expelled over the past 75 years. Their right to reclaim their land is lawful for they are the rightful Government of Palestine, elected in 2007. Hamas have never acted outside Palestine; civilians killed were reservists in the Israeli Army; those in Gaza are under "administrative detention".
